RELICS OF LORD NELSON

Photographs of all the relics and a photograph of the following certificate accompany each of the succeeding six lots.

St. Arnaud,
Reigate,

21st November, 1930

The Statement given below and signed by Miss Frances Girdlestone, I am fully satisfied is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief; and I also feel assured that the Certificate signed by Miss Frances Girdlestone with respect to the Silver Teapot, Sugar Basin, Cream Jug, Sheffield Plate Stand, two Coasters, Presentation Bowl, and four old Glass Rummors, is in order, as applying to the before-mentioned articles.

Miss Girdlestone and her two sisters and Aunt, all now deceased, have been well-known to me for very many years.

(sgd.) A. E. Cornwall-Walker.

My Great Grandmother was Miss S. Nelson, Nelson's favourite sister, who married her first cousin, Mr. Tom Bolton.

My Grandmother—her daughter—married her first cousin, Sir William Bolton, and her sister, Elizabeth Bolton, married her first cousin, my Grandfather, Regd. Henry Girdlestone.

My Mother, Ellen Catherine Bolton, married her first cousin, Mr. Horatio Girdlestone.

21st November 1930

(sgd.) Frances Girdlestone.

The relics were purchased from Miss F. Girdlestone. The original certificate may be inspected at Messrs. Sotheby & Co.'s premises, and will be sold with lot 50.

- 45 A set of four cut-glass Rummors with bell-shaped bodies and facet cutting, on moulded circular bases, engraved with the initial "N",  $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. high 4
- 46 A Sheffield plate Tray of small size, the centre plain, except for the initials "N.B." (for Nelson & Bronte), surmounted by coronets, the borders with reeded decoration,  $6\frac{1}{2}$ in. wide 2
- 47 A PAIR OF DECANTER STANDS, circular, with wooden bases, set in the centres with silver plaques engraved with Nelson's two crests, the moulded borders with gadroon edges, by Robert & David Hennell, London, 1800,  $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. diam. 2
- ** The crests are, on the dexter side, the stern of the battleship "San Josef", of 112 guns, which surrendered to Nelson at the Battle of Cape St. Vincent, Jan. 14, 1797, and on the sinister side the chelengk or plume of triumph presented to him by Sultan Selim of Turkey after the Battle of the Nile.
- 48 A TEAPOT, oval, with dotted border, engraved with wreaths and flowers, etc., in horizontal panels, the spout with carved pattern, wooden handle and knob, the sides engraved with the initials "N.B.", surmounted by coronets, by John Emes, London, 1801—wt. (all in) 23 ozs. 8 dwts.
- 49 A SUGAR BASIN AND A CREAM JUG of oval form, with reeded borders and handles, the sides plain, except for the crest of the "San Josef", and on the sugar basin the initials "N.B.", surmounted by coronets, by William Fountain, London, 1797—wt. 15 ozs. 7 dwts. 2

- 50 A SAUCE TUREEN with Cover, of oval urn shape and fine quality, with gadroon edge and snake handle, on oblong foot, by Daniel Pontifex, London, 1801—wt. 21 ozs. 5 dwts.

* The sides are engraved with armorials and the following inscription :—

“ Presented by the Committee appointed to manage the Subscription raised for the benefit of the Wounded Relatives of those who were Killed in the glorious Victory obtained off Copenhagen on the 2 of April 1801, to Vice Admiral Lord Nelson K.B. Duke of Bronte, etc. etc. etc. in testimony of the high sense entertained of his meritorious and unprecedented Exertions in defence of his Country, which at the Peril and danger of his life he so nobly sustained previous to the Engagement, and as a token of his brilliant and gallant Conduct during the whole of that ever memorable Action.”

Lloyds Coffee House

John Julius Angerstein, Chairman.

The arms are those of Nelson as Viscount, with his motto “ Palmarum qui meruit ferat ” and encircled by the collar of the Order of the Bath. On the lid are the “ San Josef ” crest with the motto “ Faith & Works ”, and two coronets having the Star of the Order of the Bath between them.

John Julius Angerstein is well-known as the owner of the fine collection of pictures which formed the nucleus of the National Gallery.

By the same maker, Daniel Pontifex, and of the same year, are the two tea caddies formerly belonging to Lord Nelson, which fetched £170 in the F. A. Crisp sale, Sotheby's, Mar. 28, 1935.

Probably these caddies also formed part of Lloyds' gift to Nelson.

Lloyds Coffee House also gave a present to every wounded officer and sailor present at the battle of Copenhagen ; we may be sure that if they had not done so, Nelson would never have accepted their gift. He bitterly resented the omission of the City of London to pass a vote of thanks to the fleet, wrote a scathing letter on the subject to the Lord Mayor and refused in the following year to accept a personal vote of thanks or to attend the Lord Mayor's banquet. (See The Despatches and Letters of . . . Nelson, edited by Sir N. H. Nicolas, vol. 4, 1845, pp. 415 and 524, and vol. 5, pp. 17 and 33.)

Other Properties

- 51 A WATCH, by De Lorme, Paris, in fine silver case, pierced and engraved with baroque designs and with alarum and repeating action, circa 1700

** This watch is inscribed: "From Admiral Lord Nelson to Post Captain Jonas Rose". It is recorded in Britten "Old Clocks and Watches", p. 648.

- 52 NELSON. A Goblet on circular foot, inscribed "from Horatia Nelson to her kind friend and pastor, the revd. Mr. Lancaster, in grateful remembrance of his fatherly attentions to her instruction in early piety and religion, October 29th 1807", by John Emes, London, 1804,  $6\frac{1}{4}$  in. high—9 ozs. 7 dwts.

** Horatia was the daughter of Lord Nelson and Lady Hamilton. She married the Rev. Philip Ward, at one time Vicar of Tenterdon in Kent; she died in 1881 (see newspaper cuttings to be sold with the cup).

Formerly belonging to the late Samuel Lucas Lancaster Lucas, Alderman of the City of London.

- ** This cup is believed traditionally to have been made especially for the Empress Elizabeth Petrovna, daughter of Peter the Great.
- 57 A Russian parcel gilt Tankard, the cylindrical body chased with rococo designs, consisting of scrolls, birds, etc., the cover of cap shape, scroll handle, on three ball feet, Moscow, 1760, 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. high—wt. 11 ozs. 16 dwts.
- 58 A Russian silver-gilt Vase with Cover of Empire design, on square base with claw feet, the cover surmounted by the Imperial double-headed eagle, Moscow, 1817; and another of the same form, with cover finely chased with bay leaves and acanthus leaves in panels, on square base, Moscow, 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. high—wt. 19 ozs. 13 dwts. 2
- 59 Another of font shape, with Cover, surmounted by the Imperial double-headed eagle, the sides of the bowl engraved with festoons and with monogram, Moscow, circa 1800, 7in. high; and another in copper gilt, 7in. high 2
- 60 A RUSSIAN TANKARD, parcel gilt, the cylindrical body chased with hunting scenes, figures in landscapes, etc., in rococo panels, the cover with similar borders, and in the centre a plaque containing figures of peasants, on three claw and ball feet, Moscow, 1760, 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. high—wt. 33 ozs. 5 dwts.
- 61 A FINE RUSSIAN TANKARD, parcel gilt, the nearly cylindrical body engraved with three circular panels, each containing mythological and religious subject, and with baroque frames joined to each other by festoons of drapery, the cover of cap shape engraved with another similar subject surrounded by an inscription, Moscow, 1743—wt. 41 ozs. 15 dwts.

The Property of the Lady Dorothy Fraser,

Carlton Curliou Hall, Leicester

- 62 A SILVER-GILT FIGURE OF A COCK, formed as a cup, with removable head, Continental; on stand, 18 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. high
- 63 A FIGURE OF NEPTUNE with a shell and trident in silver, with enamelled decoration, probably Viennese, 12in. high

SILVER—AT PER OZ.

ozs. dwts.

- 64 A VERY RARE SET OF FOUR CANDLE SCONCES for hanging on the wall, the backs with gadroon borders and arched tops, engraved with armorials and motto, plain bow fronts and cylindrical sockets with beaded borders, London, 1810,  $11\frac{1}{2}$  in. high . . . . 56 15

** The arms are those of Lt. Gen. Sir Charles Craufurd Fraser, V.C., K.C.B., d. 1895; he was Colonel of the 8th Hussars, and greatly distinguished himself in the Indian Mutiny and the Abyssinian War.

SILVER—ALL AT.

- 65 A silver-gilt Cup and Cover of German 16th Century design, Victorian, 10 in. high; and an old foreign small Bowl of octafoil shape, which has been fitted to the cup, forming its base—wt. 21 ozs. 10 dwts.
- 66 A GERMAN SILVER-GILT TALL CUP with Cover, of baluster form, chased with rococo ornament, the stem chased in a similar way, the bowl engraved round the outside with armorials, trophies and inscriptions, the base of circular form, the cover surmounted by coat-of-arms, per fess gules and argent, and a classical figure, dated 1763,  $22\frac{1}{2}$  in. high—wt. 50 ozs. 15 dwts.

** The arms are those of the town of Solothurn in Switzerland; they are repeated in the hall-mark stamped on the base. A German inscription on the base may be translated as follows:
 "The town council and citizens offer this memorial of civic loyalty to the acting magistrate, Franz Victor Buch, in the 22nd year of his office, Dec. 7, 1763."

The Buch family came originally from Vienna, but had been established at Solothurn since 1554. It is probable that this cup was given to Franz Victor for his services on behalf of the Spanish party on the town council against Besenval, who was acting in the French interest. It seems to have been unknown hitherto that there was an assay office at Solothurn.
